

Pan-Canadian Evaluation and Follow-up Meeting of the Pan-Canadian Young Feminists Gathering
March 27--29 mars, 2009 – Les Cèdres, Quebec

Goals of the pan-Canadian evaluation/follow-up meeting:

- ✪ Share our personal and collective perspectives concerning all aspects of the pan-Canadian Gathering: content, format, mobilizing process and organization
- ✪ Strengthen the links among young feminist rebELLEs throughout Canada
- ✪ Consider and share ideas regarding follow-up to the Gathering
- ✪ Think about practical ways to follow-up on the Gathering
- ✪ Consolidate the foundations of a pan-Canadian network of young feminists, which will make it possible to conduct collective actions in the current context of the rise of right-wing forces
- ✪ Assess the challenges we must surmount to reinforce the young feminists' movement in Canada and collectively consider our victories

All through the weekend, be aware of :

- Intersection of oppressions and a concern about diversity
- Territorial/provincial evaluations
- Concern about decentralizing the spin-offs

FRIDAY, MARCH 27
Time	Schedule
1:00 – 5:00	Arrival of delegates and the Organizing Committee
5:15	Welcome
5:30	Dinner
6 30	Viewing the movie on the gathering
7 30	TALK SHOW : Personal evaluation of the gathering <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Sketch and discussion about the gathering and the movie. ▪ Distribution of the movie, DVD and simultaneous launches
21h00	End of the evening – Free time

SATURDAY, MARCH 28

Time	Schedule
8:00	The rise and the breakfast
9:00	Good morning and morning exercises!
9:20	Collective evaluation of the gathering Collectivisation of the answers to consultation question number 1 : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What is your assessment of the Gathering? What do think were the two most positive aspects in terms of creating solidarity among young feminists? The two most negative aspects?
10:00	Break
10:15	   Our actions - Workshops Collectivisation of the answers to consultation questions number 5 and number 7 : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What actions have young feminists in your area carried out since the Gathering? Is the commitment and dedication of young feminists more visible now? ○ How have you used or what use do you intend to make of the pan-Canadian young feminists manifesto and the popular education tools produced by the Waves of Resistance team?
11:30	PLENARY SESSION ON OUR ACTIONS - Presentation of the workshops and +++
12:00	Lunch
13:30	Impacts of the gathering - Plenary discussion Collectivisation of the answers to consultation questions number 5, number 6 and number 4 : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is the commitment and dedication of young feminists more visible now? ○ Did the Gathering have an impact on feminist organizations in your area? If so, how? ○ Did the Gathering allow you to think about and develop action strategies to resist the rising of the right in your area?
15:00	Break
15:15	Construction of our movement and strengthening the feminist movement : Barriers and our solutions - Workshops Collectivisation of the answers to the question number 8 and extra question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ In your opinion, what are the main barriers to feminist involvement/mobilization in your area? ○ How do we see our contribution to be in order to strenghten the feminist movement in short medium and long term?
16:15	Construction of our movement and strengthening the feminist movement : Barriers and our solutions – Collectivisation and Plenary discussion
17:00	Workshop on young women’s poverty and their economic security
17:45	Free time

18:30	Dinner
19:30	Our wildest dreams!!! Collectivisation of answers to the consultation question number 2 : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What are your wildest dreams for the follow-up to the Gathering? What kind of collective feminist structure or organization do you envision after Waves of Resistance? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Sketch of intro ▪ Group work ▪ Presentation of the sketches
20:30	Party night – Live music and dj + dance!!

SUNDAY, MARCH 29
Time	Schedule
8:30	The rise and breakfast
9:30	Outdoor activity – To wake ourselves up!!!
10:00	FROM DREAM TO REALITY – Plenary session Collectivisation of the answers to the consultation question number 3 : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Dreams are important, but so is the practical side! What part of these dreams do you think is realistically achievable? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Decision making process ▪ Call to proposals ▪ Discussion ▪ Democratic decisions
12:00	Evaluation of the meeting
12:30	Lunch
14:00	GOOD BYE and departure

ANNEXE : Consultation questions

1. What is your assessment of the Gathering? What do think were the two most positive aspects in terms of creating solidarity among young feminists? The two most negative What is your assessment of the Gathering? What do think were the two most positive aspects in terms of creating solidarity among young feminists? The two most negative aspects?
2. What are your wildest dreams for the follow-up to the Gathering? What kind of collective feminist structure or organization do you envision after Waves of Resistance?
3. Dreams are important, but so is the practical side! What part of these dreams do you think is realistically achievable?
4. Did the Gathering allow you to think about and develop action strategies to resist the rising of the right in your area?
5. What actions have young feminists in your area carried out since the Gathering? Is the commitment and dedication of young feminists more visible now?
6. Did the Gathering have an impact on feminist organizations in your area? If so, how?
7. How have you used or what use do you intend to make of the pan-Canadian young feminists manifesto and the popular education tools produced by the Waves of Resistance team?
8. In your opinion, what are the main barriers to feminist involvement/mobilization in your area?

Document prepared by the Organizing Committee of « Toujours RebELLEs / Waves of Resistance » info@rebelles2008.org / www.rebelles.org